

POSITION SUMMARY: MAJOR TASKS, DUTIES, AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Following the initial orientation and screening period, the PCT should be able to demonstrate basic theoretical knowledge and clinical skills in accordance with established procedures and functions of the position. Competency shall be maintained in these areas as evidenced by successful completion of the yearly job performance evaluation.

POSITION QUALIFICATIONS:

Current knowledge and skills in performing job responsibilities specific to the age and type of patient population served.

Completion of basic clinical nurse training.

Basic Knowledge of anatomy and physiology, pharmacology and nursing assistant

BLS required. CPI encouraged.